

► And now, as Monty Python used to say, for something completely different: Brazilian percussionist Helcio Milito, who has been playing for years at the Inn at Spanish Bay, has asked a fellow Brazilian musician to join him for a two-week-plus stint in the Lobby Lounge there.

“Dado is one of the best of a new generation of Brazilian musicians playing today,” he said, “so I invited him to come to this country to play with my band.”

Dado (Leonardo Magnelli is his full name) plays flute and tenor/soprano saxes and will join the Helcio Milito Trio (with Bob Bossa on guitar) from 7-11 Thursday through Sunday nights through Sunday, Feb. 8. GO!
